

Temporary Food Events

Vendor Package

Where to start....

The goal of this package is to assist vendors of a special event to properly complete the Saskatchewan Health Authority approval process necessary to attend a special event. The information in this package outlines the minimum requirements needed to reduce the possibility of illness to those who attend the event.

Please read through this entire package first, as it will guide you through the approval process. Failure to read through this package may cause delays and could impact your approval for your event.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact your local public health inspector for assistance.

The following list outlines the basic process for a vendor of a _____ event to follow in _____ comply with the Saskatchewan Health Authority requirements.

The remainder of this package will provide greater details for each process and help you complete the necessary forms.

Vendor Responsibilities

1

- Review this package and contact a public health inspector if you have any questions.
- Complete the Vendor Application form and if applicable, complete the Permission to Use an Approved Facility form (page 14).

2

- Return completed forms to the Event Organizer in the time frame indicated.
- Any forms received after 14 days of the event date may not be approved.

3

- Ensure that you have your food booth properly set up and ready for operation at least one hour prior to the start of the event. Bring the Pre-Opening checklist (page 7) to help with setup.

4

- Any missing items required for safe food handling may result in delays or denial of licensing and you will not be permitted to operate.

5

- All food and ingredients must come from an approved source. This means food must come from a facility with a current Public Eating Establishment License, or similar licensing agency (CFIA). Proof of source of food products may be required by the public health inspector so make sure to retain all receipts.

- Depending on the vendor booth set up, food and beverages may be prepared, cooked, assembled and served from the booth at the event with prior approval.

7

- If the booth set up does not meet certain requirements (example: portable sinks, cooking equipment, etc.) then food and beverages will need to be prepared, cooked and assembled prior to the event, in an approved/licenced kitchen and dispensed only from the booth at the event.

Permission to Use a Licensed Food Establishment Form

All advanced food preparation prior to the event or any food handling occurring anywhere other than in the special event booth, must be done in a Licensed Public Eating Establishment or a Saskatchewan Health Authority – approved kitchen. This includes preparation of samples, beverages and any food items intended to be sold or given away at the special event. This does NOT include a private or home kitchen.

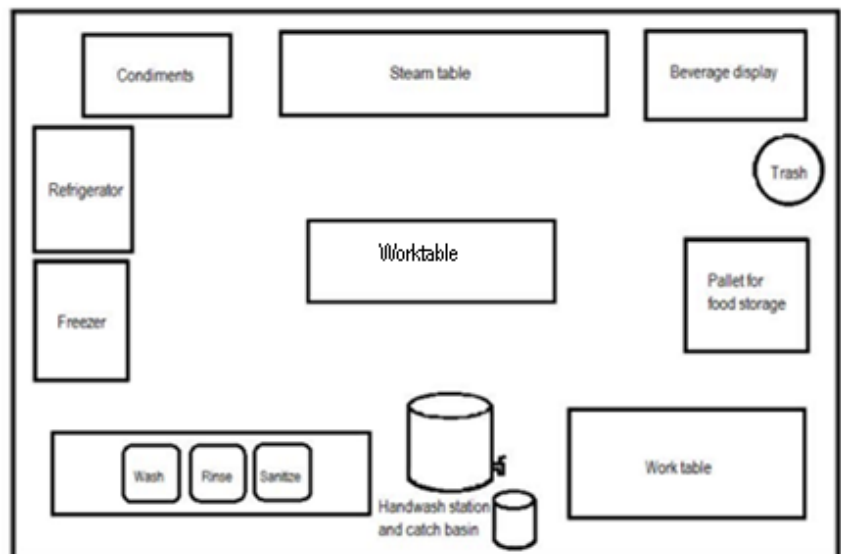

If the vendor is the owner/operator of a Licensed Public Eating Establishment, the vendor can do advanced preparation in their Licensed Public Eating Establishment. In this case there is no need to fill in the Permission to use Form, simply indicate you are the owner on the Vendor Application form.

If the vendor is NOT the owner/operator of a Licensed Public Eating Establishment, they will need to get approval and access from a Licensed Public Eating Establishment or Saskatchewan Health Authority – approved kitchen, in order to do any advanced preparation required. In this case, you will need to fill in and submit a Permission to Use form (page 13) and include it with your application form.

Booth Layout

You are required to submit a site map of your food booth as part of the Vendor Application form depicting the location of all equipment, tables, food storage areas, cooking equipment locations, garbage receptacles, handwashing stations and dishwashing/food preparation sinks. A booth layout sheet is attached to page 12 of this package.

Example of Food Booth Layout

Safe Food Handling

- It is required that at least one person who has successfully completed a recognized food safety course be on site at all times. All persons involved in the preparation, selling or offering of food/beverage are strongly encouraged to attend a food safety training course.
- Information on food safety training can be found on the SHA website at www.saskhealthauthority.ca
- All foods must be protected from contamination at all times during preparation, storage, processing and display. This may include shelving to keep foods off the floor or a sneeze guard to protect any open food on display.
- All food preparation areas including cooking areas must be physically separated from the public to prevent contamination and to prevent risk of burns.
- OPEN FLAME CHAFFING DISHES ARE NOT RECOMMENDED AT OUTDOOR EVENTS- this is due to blowing out of flames and inability to maintain temperatures over longer periods of time. It is recommended that you use electronic hot holding devices capable of maintaining temperatures over 60 Degrees Celsius.
- Condiments (ketchup, mustard, etc.) must be dispensed from a squeeze bottle, pump container or individually packaged.
- Animals, small children and any other potential source of contamination are not permitted in the food booth.
- Food handlers must wash their hands prior to handling foods and at any time in which they may become contaminated. Gloves & hand sanitizer do not replace hand washing.
- Hair must be restrained so it does not contaminate food products, this can be achieved by use of a baseball hat, hair net, pony tail or similar.
- Food handlers must NOT work while ill.
- No smoking or vaping is permitted in food preparation areas and/or the food booth.

Sink Requirements

Food Handling Activity	Examples	Sink Requirement
Selling pre-packaged foods only	Chips, candy, bottled drink, cookies, cupcakes, pies, etc.	No sink requirements Hand sanitizer recommended
Dispensing drinks from original sealed containers Serving only dry foods Portioning foods into single use cups Serving of previously prepared foods	Wine, beer, coffee, tea Donuts, cookies Sampling pretzels, nuts, bread Serving of hot and cold foods prepared in a licensed kitchen ahead of time	Temporary Handwash station in food booth - extra serving utensils or three-compartment sink available
Processing of foods on site, assembling previously prepared foods, final cooking or re-heating of foods	Mixing, assembling, cutting, rolling, and similar activities of meat, vegetables Burgers, Kabobs, Chicken, Seafood (pre-cooking of these products at Public Eating Establishment may be required and is highly recommended)	Portable Handwash sink with hot and cold running water in booth, three compartment sink with hot and cold running water in booth

Temporary Handwashing Stations

An example of an acceptable set up includes:

- 5 gallon (20L) camping jug or coffee urn filled with warm water.
- Tap or spigot that allows a hands free flow of water. Push button spouts are not acceptable.
- Soap & paper towel from dispensers.
- Handwashing station must be kept off of the ground on a table or shelf (as shown in picture).
- Catch bucket/basin to receive grey water. The water must not be allowed to drain directly onto the ground. The catch bucket/basin must be equal or greater in capacity than the potable water container.
- Water shall be disposed of in a toilet or other receptacle connected to a sanitary sewer. Do not dump wastewater into a storm sewer.
- Handwashing stations MUST be operational before handling of any foods occurs at the food booth. Be prepared to show your Health Inspector your handwashing station during inspection.
- Hand sanitizers and/or gloves DO NOT replace hand washing.
- A handwashing station is always required where there is open food, including sampling. If all food is prepackaged, you may not require a temporary handwash station.

Pre-Opening Checklist

The operator of a Food Booth should ensure this checklist is complete prior to opening. Ensure all applicable items are available at a minimum of one (1) hour prior to the start of the event and again every day prior to opening (if it is a multi-day event).
